

In The Beginning

The full depth of sin

Consider the blood line of the Redeemer ...Gen.4:1-8

If Eve was expecting to bear a son who would bring victory, comment on 4:1.

Believing that Cain, (possession) was the promised seed, what does Abel mean to her? 4:1

Eve has obviously misunderstood the prophecy of the seed. Application today? Mk.13:29-37

From the genealogy of the bloodline of Christ, the seed of the woman, is Cain the one? Lu 3:38

If Satan was expecting Cain to be the 'seed', what kind of strategy might he lead? 4:2-7

The consequences of sin ... Gen.4:9-15

Comment on verse 9. What do you sense in Cain? What do you sense in the Lord?

In response to Cain's cry of 'unfair', what does the Lord do for him? vs.13-15 Why?? IPet.3:9

Where did Cain get his wife (vs.17)? Why is there no record given of women?

Doesn't this constitute incest? Wasn't this prohibited? Lev.20:10-21

Obviously, the population is growing rapidly. What signs of civilization begin? vs.17-22

What is also seen in verses 23-24? What is beginning to happen here?

The blood line of the Redeemer continues. Gen.4:25-5:32

When Seth (substituted) is born, what is Eve's reaction? 4:25 Why??

And while Seth was not THE SEED, what was he? Gen.5:1-5; Lu. 3:23-38
